Practical experience

Our experienced sales team makes selling your boat easy.

Every day we're in contact with prospective boat buyers through our Boat Sales office (conveniently located in the hub of Melbourne's boating scene at Pier 35 Marina Village in Port Melbourne) and through our extensive marine industry contacts.

Why go through the hassle of trying to sell your boat when we can do it for you?

And all with the aim of securing you the best possible price.

A fine boating history

Pier 35 Boat Sales is owned and run by Jackson Development Group, headed by Des and Adam Jackson. The Jackson family has been leaders in the marine industry since James C. Jackson started the family's first boat sales business more than six decades ago.

Committed to excellence, the Pier 35 Boat Sales team consists of Master Mariners, former boat builders, marina developers and insurance and finance professionals.

It's why when you sell a boat at Pier 35 Boat Sales, you'll benefit from personal knowledge and advice that can only come from experience.
